Presents

DEBUTANTES
OF 1959

You have kept your head when all about you
Were losing theirs and coming to you
Asking your advice, since they had no doubt you
Could tell them just exactly what to do.

You have worked—and not made work your master;
You have thought—and not made thoughts your aim;
You have met with Triumph and Disaster
And treated those two imposters just the same.

You have heard the truths you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
And watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stooped and built them up with worn-out tools.

You have forced your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve a turn long after the required was done
And so pushed on when there was nothing in you
Except the Will which said to you: "Push on!"

You have captured hearts by your grace and virtue
And served as both student-faculty crutch;
Neither foe nor loving friend could hurt you
For all counted with you but none too much.

You have filled our hours and days at Salem
With loving care and devotion, certainly true;
For these and other innumerable contributions,

MISS WEAVER,
we dedicate our Quill Pen to you.

MONNIE SHUTTLEWORTH GAY
Lexington, Kentucky

With graduation this June, the class of '59 looks back over its senior year. The fun we've had and the wonderful friends we've made make it well worth a little hard work.

After starting our year with Senior Day, we followed with Moravian cookie sales and a successful Christmas bazaar, enabling us to present two lovely silver services for the school's future use.

We, the graduating debutantes, are the finished products of Salem Academy. Here we are ready to venture out into the joys, sorrows, and the mysteries of life. May the Senior Class of 1959 be long remembered at Salem, and may each graduating Senior long remember the wonderful experiences she has had during her school years here.

JUNIOR CLASS

Marshaling for the seniors, the Junior Class gained much experience from which they will profit in their own presentation next year.

Selling tipons and Christmas cards, sponsoring the Junior auction and many other projects led up to the big moment of this wonderful year, the Junior-Senior which will long be remembered by each of us.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

While acquiring the poise every young debutante should have, these sophomore sub-debs took time out to sponsor several much appreciated Saturday night movies and other successful ventures including a slave auction and the sophomore skit.

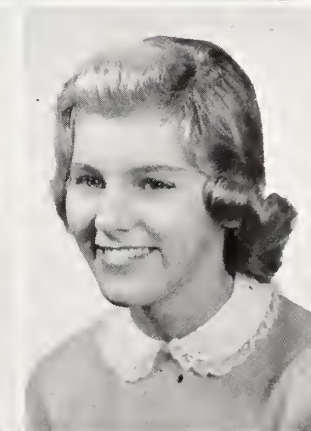

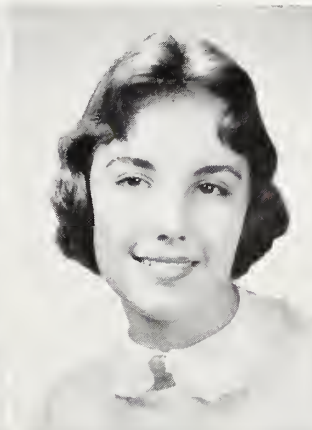

As a fitting climax to the year's activities, the class of '61 presented a tea dance in honor of the Seniors during Junior-Senior weekend. At this annual occasion the Senior beauty queen was presented with a bouquet of roses.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Calypso music, fortune tellers, contests, games of skill, and a gay carnival spirit greeted us at the Freshman Calypso Carnival the first weekend after Christmas holidays. Knights fought and died for the honor of King Richard in the Freshman sponsored movie, "Ivanhoe." Faithfully raising the flag everyday these capable young ladies have taken the initial step on the way to their debut as Salem graduates.

ORGANIZATIONS

Each Wednesday afternoon, Salem girls become aware that Student Council is once again meeting. Many important problems pertaining to dormitory life are discussed and solved.

The Student Council, which consists of various representatives, began the year by welcoming the new students. Then there was a gala banquet at which the forth-coming debs performed their first senior duty, cutting the birthday cake. At Christmas the Council gave a party for the help. The Council's year was drawn to a close by the traditional and inspiring Spirit Fire ceremony.

Each girl at Salem is a member of student government and has a share in maintaining our high standards.

HONOR COUNCIL

We, at Salem, have often heard that any organization is only as strong as its weakest link. The Honor Council is our judicial and exemplary group that works with kind patience and untiring skill to strengthen our "weak links" and to instill in each of us the true meaning of honor in every phase of life.

The Council consists of two Seniors, two Juniors, one Sophomore, one Freshman, and the President of the Student Body.

SPIRITUAL STEERING WHEEL

The Spiritual Steering Wheel, one of the most important school organizations, carefully guides each Salem girl to be a more spiritually well-balanced person. Each hall is represented throughout the year by various girls. These representatives, as well as the main Council members have nightly hall devotions and arrange religious services, thereby shaping the spiritual growth of all.

Every Salemite feels the benefit of the S. S. W. whose aim is to help fulfill each girl's spiritual needs.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN

Among our groups of organizations at Salem are six important committees: The Good Will Committee, the Standards Committee, the Community and World Service Committee, the Social Committee, the Program Committee, and the Service Committee.

It is the duty of each committee chairman to lead her group in the right direction and to plan, organize, and carry out each activity to the best of her ability.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Kapes the Junior Red Cross began its year of service with a membership drive. Every Salemite has an opportunity to become a member by pledging her service, time, or money.

The Red Cross Council is chosen by popular vote at the beginning of the school year. Throughout the year the girls participate in various worthwhile activities from which they gain personal enjoyment in a sense of service for others.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

liam; Julie Arnold; Lynn Sharpe; Nancy Hall, Lucie Niceley.*

DANCE COMMITTEE

Blue lights and appropriate music gave an enchanting atmosphere to "Little Star," theme of Salem's first dance in the 1958-59 season.

In February the committee presented a Valentine's Dance which was one of the highlights of the year. The dance committee's efforts led to fond memories for each debutante's scrapbook.

GLEE CLUB

Every young debutante-to-be must learn the social graces and arts; and the glee club, under the able direction of Miss Sampson, affords her an excellent opportunity to learn or at least attempt the art of singing. For those who are especially good singers, there is the ensemble which adds a great deal to all of our Glee Club productions.

The program given for the Patron's Tea, the traditional Christmas Pageant, and the favorite trip to Adelaide's church at Christmas started off the Glee Club's busy year. All these projects lead up to the spring operetta which highlights and completes the Glee Club's activities of the year.

Every Salemite looks forward to receiving her Quill Pen at the end of each school year. The members of the 1958-59 Editorial Staff worked to make the Quill Pen of 1959 the most successful in the history of Salem. This they have tried to do by picturing every phase of school life from the young nervous Freshman to the poised Senior debutante.

Of vital importance to the annual is the Advertising Staff. Its members work ceaselessly collecting ads within the school and city. Without their untiring efforts it would have been impossible to publish this annual.

DRAMATICS CLUB

For the young aspiring Helen Hayes, we have the Dramatics Club. This year the club produced "Overtones," "The Rehearsal," and "Will O' the Wisp"; three one-act plays. In the spring, a three-act play was produced, and also the Dramatic Club collaborated with the Glee Club in presenting the "Mikado."

SCRIBBLER'S CLUB

Our school paper, which is issued four times a year, is called "The Omnibus." Anyone and everyone is given a chance to become a contributor to the paper, and she is then known as an official member of the Scribbler's Club.

A few weeks before returning to Salem in the fall, each student receives an edition of "The Pencil Shavings" which is the summer edition of "The Omnibus." These papers, literary masterpieces, are enjoyed by all.

SCOTT RODWELL

PRESIDENT STUDENT BODY

The office of president of our Student Council demands much leadership and responsibility. This year's president, Barbara Blackwelder, has certainly filled this important role very conscientiously. By working with the girls individually, she has helped them become better members of our student body and added to the success of our student government.

BARBARA BLACKWELDER

AILEEN SAMFORD

PRESIDENT HONOR COUNCIL

Honor is a quality which plays a very important part in the life of each Salem student; and the presenting and furthering of this honor is the job of the president of our Honor Council, Aileen Samford. By helping each girl realize the meaning and importance of honesty, Aileen has greatly added to the esteem in which our school is held. Her guidance and friendship have helped each Salemite become a better and more trustworthy citizen.

VALERIE McLANAHAN

BARBARA BLACKWELDER

HONOR GRADUATES

This year our highest academic honor has been awarded to Barbara Blackwelder and Valerie McLanahan. They have earned the honor of having the highest scholastic averages. These two girls have put forth diligent work, therefore deserving the achievement of Honor Graduates.

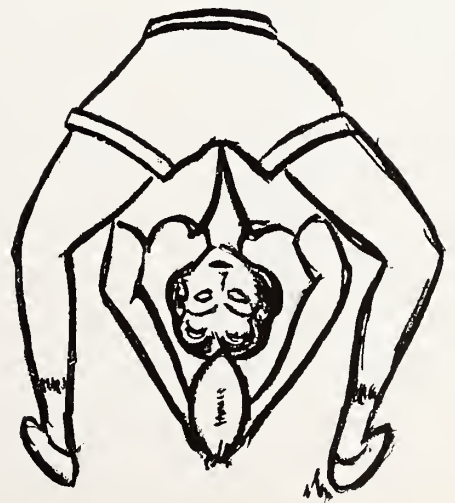

Seated: Hall, Gilliam, Shannon, Potter. Standing: Kidd, McKenzie, Halsey, Rogers.

ACADEMIC COMMENCEMENT MARSHALS

One of the highest honors bestowed on a selected few each year at Salem is that of Academic Commencement Marshal. The Senior Class chooses eight of the most outstanding underclassmen. These girls are selected for their academic standing, school spirit, and poise. These girls serve at the Senior-Faculty Breakfast given just before graduation. Their most important duty, however, is that of marshaling for the seniors on that all-important graduating night. The marshals this year are: Hannah Gilliam, Chief Marshal, Nancy Hall, Accompanist, Judy Shannon, Tillie Anne Kidd, Sue McKenzie, Rosemary Halsey, Brownie Rogers, and Anna Hicks Potter.

Growing Up With Opportunity

While you've been growing up and "getting educated", opportunity has been growing, too. All around you, industry and business have multiplied. Electrification has increased farm yield while cutting down on labor and risk.

When you were sophomores, the Duke Power Company was beginning new plants to supply your power needs after graduation. Now ample, low-priced power increases your job opportunity, and Piedmont resources are ready for your energy and ideas. Good luck to you as you find your place in the Piedmont Carolinas.

SALEM COLLEGE

is proud of

SALEM ACADEMY

for . . . its consistent progress
. . . its academic standing
. . . the achievements of its graduates

Because of this pride and a natural affection for our "Mother" institution, Salem College welcomes Salem Academy graduates into the student body. We hope that you will feel just as much at home on our West Campus, as you do on your East Campus, whether you are Senior or Freshman.

Your Journal and Sentinel Builds For The Future

With express confidence in the future growth and development of Winston-Salem and Northwest North Carolina, the Journal and Sentinel has announced a $1,500,000.00 modernization and expansion program. Improvements in facilities include the installation of a $600,000.00 five-unit high speed press . . . one of many reasons why you're "news-ahead" when you subscribe to the Winston-Salem JOURNAL and Twin City SENTINEL. Each edition is meaty with NEWS — alive with FEATURES AND SPORTS — entertaining with COMICS.

"Winston has got it," says Garry Moore, "because Winston's got a secret! It's Filter-Blend—fine, mild tobaccos specially processed for filter smoking!"

"A cigarette without flavor is like a world without women. Who wants it?" says the star of Winston's television hit, "I've Got a Secret!". "After all, if you don't get flavor . . . you're missing the whole idea of smoking!"

"Winston has got flavor! Because up ahead of Winston's pure modern filter is Filter-Blend—a Winston exclusive! This secret—Filter-Blend—is what makes Winston America's best-tasting filter cigarette. Try Winston!"
